

JOB OFFER

OFFICE MANAGER

Who we are

The European Civic Forum (ECF) is a transnational network that brings together over 100 associations and NGOs across 27 countries in Europe and is actively working to promote civic and popular ownership of Europe, to foster citizens' participation and the emergence of a European public space where the role and influence of civil society are fully recognized through the setting up of a genuine European civil dialogue.

What we stand for

Since its creation in 2005, the European Civic Forum has been particularly working to:

- Enable civic participation through citizens' associations and movements for a Europe grounded on Equality, Solidarity and Democracy that guarantees effective access to rights for all
- Support the structuring of European civil society movement through alliance building, collective thinking and joint campaigning for the common good
- Fight for the institutional recognition of civil society through the setting up of a genuine European civil dialogue
- Monitor and analyse the evolution of civil society space in Europe via the Civic Space Watch

How we take action

- We connect civil society actors transnationally and cross-sectorally through conferences, forums, alliances, working groups
- We participate in civil dialogue structures at European level
- We advocate and campaign for the recognition of civil society organisations in the policy making process at European, national or local level

Please feel free to visit our website, as well as Civic Space Watch and read our last annual report and strategic priorities for more information about ECF and our activities.
